- The CSI curriculum proposal guide is available on the website.
- Departments/Programs must submit proposals to the elected Committee Chair and the Curriculum Coordinator two weeks before the scheduled committee meeting.
- Committee agendas are distributed by the curriculum office a week before the scheduled curriculum committee meeting.
- Approved proposals are forwarded by the curriculum office to the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate for inclusion on the Faculty Senate agenda.
- The Faculty Senate agenda, distributed by the Faculty Senate Secretary, is distributed a week before the scheduled Faculty Senate meeting.
- A standard Faculty Senate practice requires that a representative from the relevant department or program be present for a curriculum proposal to be considered by the Faculty Senate.
- The Curriculum Office submits curriculum proposals approved by the Faculty Senate in the Coursedog system for CUNY Board of Trustees approval. If NYSED approval is required, CUNY OAA submits on the college's behalf.
- General education proposals to be considered for Pathways must be approved by the Common Core Course Review Committee (CCCRC). The Office of Academic Affairs is responsible for these submissions.
